

The American Nazi Party is often baited by other “Nazi,” Klan, militia, Christian Identity et cetera et al ad absurdum nationalist groups, activists who want to elicit a tepid ANP response to questions regarding Jews, blacks, Muslims, and non-White races generally. They seek to prove that we are insufficiently radical about our required hatreds, that we do not aggressively attack and demonstrate against our common enemies. Emails, internet blog posts, podcasts, loud rhetoric at pathetic rallies, all launch attacks in one form or another against our lack of combative antagonism. Our accusers will often announce the ANP position as weak, a scandalous revelation, an exposé of political and philosophical disgrace, a betrayal of white nationalism, and so forth. Consequently, we are supposed to be ashamed, embarrassed.

But it does not embarrass us. National-Socialism is NOT about hate. And despite the antics of some otherwise justifiably angry White nationalists, despite the ready-made condemnations in the media about “hate groups” underscored by expected violent behavior perpetrated by these same nationalist critics of the ANP, the leadership and members of the ANP do not support or engage in generic hatreds. My comrades and I frankly do not have the time or energy to hate. Simmering hatreds breed dangerous schemes in the minds and hearts of malcontents, impulses of revenge, witless outbursts of violence. We refuse to carry the unhealthy burden of hate and schemes. Speaking for myself, I know dozens of middle-class Jews struggling like me just to make ends meet. When I was a kid one of my two best buddies was the Jewish boy down the block. I often slept over at his house. I was there for Hannukah, and when Seder arrived, sure, I was not asked to table, however I was content to play with the huge O gauge trainset in the basement. I overheard the eldest son reciting in Hebrew, praying over an ornate table set with fancy dishes, mumbling on and on, until finally I hear my little buddy blurt out: “Now may we please eat?!” He was as impatient with the religious mumbo jumbo as I was with the church services and confirmation classes I had to endure. My buddy’s dad was fed up with demands in the mail and by phone insinuating that, as a Jew, he MUST buy Israel Bonds, or contribute to the AJC. He was like my dad who attended church only at Christmas and Easter, and my friend’s reluctantly Jewish pop sat in synagogue just for Passover and Yom Kippur, refusing to give any money to the congregation. Later we all had enough of religion and became atheists! My dad was a draftsman for a major manufacturer of electrical control devices, my friend’s father was a laboratory technician overseeing the safety of milk and cheese produced by a major dairy in town. Both men represented plain hard working, ordinary, decent middle-class families.

We lived in a part of the city with the highest concentration of Jews. In high school more than one third of my classmates were Jewish. Other than one or two jerks, we all got along without a single issue of contention or anger. In fact, my senior year at HS is among the happiest of my memories.

I work in a very public adjunct office of city government. In all my business and personal dealings with all sorts of people, I must admit that not once was I ever screwed over or betrayed by a Jew.

A movie fan since childhood, I have grown to admire the talent of Joseph L. Mankiewicz, the most intelligent man ever in Hollywood. He was born in Germany, spoke the language fluently, and was an unabashed Germanophile. He even expressed, more than once, his foreign policy preference for a pax germanica over a pax americana! A number of Jewish composers in Hollywood were all fine musicians, e.g. Bernard Herrmann, Alfred Newman, Franz Waxman, Max Steiner, Jerry Goldsmith. In his day no less a film buff than Dr. Goebbels had to admit, grudgingly, that “Hollywood still does it better.” I admire the music of Mendelssohn, and even Hitler owned recordings of his eloquent Violin Concerto and mature symphonies. Speaking of the Führer, He also made no bones about His esteem for the thrilling, authoritative performances of Wagner and other German composers he attended in Vienna, all under the baton of the passionately devoted Wagnerian conductor Gustav Mahler. Born Jewish, later a convert to Catholicism in order to get a royal appointment to lead the Vienna Opera, Mahler worshipped German culture above all others. Like Hitler, I have nothing but admiration for Mahler.

So how the hell can I be a Nazi? So accepting of so many Jews? There are many kinds of Nazis, same as differences among Jews.

The Hollywood Nazis who prance about in the costumes of movie villains are not Nazis, or more accurately, National-Socialists. The mass media purveyors of news, whether liberal or conservative, label any nut who shouts anti-black, anti-Jew, anti-Muslim epithets as a neo-Nazi. It is a convenient pre-fabricated concept that requires no analysis. When a mental defective shoots and kills 9 innocent black people sitting peaceably in their bible study group, in a church, he has not done anything to save the honor of the Confederacy, or White heritage. When a mental defective shoots and kills 11 elderly Jews in synagogue, that bloody act is not an effective method with which to protest Jewish control of financial markets and mass media. Those innocent people killed are like the civilians burned to ashes in Dresden and Tokyo. The intentionally wrong target. And any gutless miscreant who believes he is demonstrating his racial and/or political purity through applied, i.e. violent expression of hatred for the "enemies of White civilization" proves that only the ANP approach can work, in our Party's measured and considered opposition to multi-national corporate exploitation of labor, to international banking and financial manipulation, to the domination of mass media and outlets of information by a small group of pop culture power brokers. Ours is the only way to balance accounts. The Nazi hate meme is so absurd and overwrought that George Lincoln Rockwell exploited it to great effect in the tours made by his "Hate Bus." For free publicity, not opportunities to shoot guns at "enemies."

No sooner had GLR taken up the fallen banner of National-Socialism when he was immediately questioned by every media outlet about his demands that Jews be gassed, Negroes hauled off to concentration camps, homosexuals executed, his Stormtroopers unleashed to subdue all enemies. He never spoke or promoted such ideas. Never. He was forceful and assured, not arrogant and stupid. He was a Man of action, yet one who wrote his speeches and articles while listening to Bach. He did not patrol the streets looking for heads to bash. His public demonstrations were calculated publicity events culminating in the greatest NS assembly in the US since February 20, 1939: The Marquette Park march and rally, August 21, 1966.

German American Bund Rally, Madison Square Garden, 1939. 20,000 attended.

George Lincoln Rockwell, Chicago, 1966. 2,000-6,000 Participants

Any student of history cannot help but notice that, despite small numbers, Jews in their various host countries stick out among the tumults of the human chronicle. One cannot help noticing that anti-Semitism is perennial and ineradicable. Why? Abraham Foxman of the ADL dismisses hatred for Jews with the facile pronouncement that “it is a disease.” Oh. Like anti-Presbyterianism? Or anti-Baptistism? The Presbyterians, the Baptists, and other religions are not also a race with distinct blood types and unique blood-related diseases, such as found in the Ashkenazim. The Jews are a mongrel race with an explicit cultural personality, one that other cultures eventually find uncomfortable. Mahler himself excoriated Jews for “sticking out” and declared during a tour of Poland that he had “absolutely nothing in common with the ragged rabble Ostjuden,” Eastern Jews. (Mahler had converted to Catholicism for political reasons as much as his own disdain for Judenheit.)

Through the past two millennia, how many expulsions from their settlements does it take for anyone to realize that Jews are ultimately unwelcome, wherever they turn up. The suffering of Jews, the persecutions and purges, are acknowledged and commemorated in Judaism as part of an annual day of fasting: Tisha B'Av, Not just the major evictions such as occurred in Spain in that remarkable year of 1492, but also expulsions from ancient Rome, Cyprus, Cyrene and Alexandria; from Bavaria, France, Italy, Switzerland, Portugal and England during the Middle Ages. In the 17th Century and during the Enlightenment thousands of Jews were killed in the Ukraine; Peter Stuyvesant, the Dutch governor of New Amsterdam (soon to become New York, a haven for modern Jews), implemented plans to prevent Jews from settling in the city. Indeed, during the Colonial Era, the American government limited the political and economic rights of Jews. Frederick the Great of Prussia and his esteemed French confidante Voltaire had nothing good to say about Jews. In 1862 Jews were expelled from Tennessee, Mississippi, and Kentucky by Ulysses S. Grant, his General Order No. 11. Among the worst crimes against Jews were the pogroms in Russia beginning in the 1880s. Then come the bogeymen Nazis and anti-German policies exacerbated by the March 1933 “declaration of war against Germany” launched by international Jewish organizations. But STILL the Jews could not find sympathy. In the summer of 1938, delegates from thirty-two countries met at the French resort of Evian. Roosevelt chose not to send a high-level official, such as the secretary of state. Instead, Myron C. Taylor, a businessman and close friend of Roosevelt's, represented the US at the conference. During the nine-day meeting, delegate after delegate rose to express sympathy for Jewish refugees. But most countries, including the United States and Britain, offered excuses for not opening immigration quotas to more Jews.

On the 100th anniversary of the Russian Revolution, The Jerusalem Post (Nov. 11, 2017) had to confess:

“Moses led the Jews out of Egypt, Stalin led them out of the Politburo,” whispered veterans of the Bolshevik Revolution, as winter 1927 approached the Moscow River's banks. The revolution's Jewish leaders would vanish much sooner than the communism for which they fought, but many Russians – to this day – still see the revolution as a Jewish plot. This is, of course, besides Trotsky himself, builder of the Red Army and the only Soviet who served as both foreign and defense minister. Most proverbially, a Jew – Yakov Sverdlov – oversaw the nighttime execution of Czar Nikolai, Empress Alexandra, and their five children. Jewish revolutionaries were prominent beyond Russia as well. In Germany, philosopher-economist Rosa Luxemburg led an abortive revolution in 1919 before being caught, clubbed, shot dead and dumped in a canal. In Hungary, Bela Kun – originally Kohn – led a short-lived communist coup several months after Luxemburg’s murder. In Romania, Ana Pauker – originally Hebrew teacher Hannah Rabinsohn, and later the world’s first woman foreign minister – effectively ran the country for Stalin, before falling from grace and spending her last years under house arrest. In Czechoslovakia, Rudolf Slansky was the second-most powerful figure before his public trial and execution alongside 11 other senior Jewish communists. In Poland, two of the three Stalinists who led its transition to communism – Hilary Minc, who collectivized its economy, and Jakub Berman, who headed its secret police – were Jews.

The revolution, in short, was so crowded with Jews that one had to wonder whether “the Jews” were inherently revolutionary. Lenin’s deputies Lev Kamenev (originally Rozenfeld) and Grigory Zinoviev (born Hirsch Apfelbaum) and his treasurer Grigori Sokolnikov (Girsh Yankelevich Brilliant) were all Jews, as were Karl Radek (Sobelsohn), co-writer of the Soviet Constitution, Maxim Litvinov (Meir Henoeh Wallach-Finkelstein), foreign minister of the USSR.

One had to wonder whether “the Jews” were inherently revolutionary? It is certainly no wonder. Revolutionary or reactionary, a race shunned through the millennia has learned to adapt. The American neocons have directed this country into middle-eastern wars and interventions since the Reagan administration. The neocons are almost all Jews. We must understand that we are pawns played within much greater schemes, that through knowledge we can break free of the recurring cycles of apparent prosperity and genuine economic depression.

Karl Radek (Sobelsohn), Moscow 1930

And then there is The Holocaust©, which forgives everything done in the name of Israel or by Jewish criminals, past and present. But that is another essay for a later time. Suffice to say it is an historical event that cannot be even dispassionately disputed or discussed. In most European countries, in Canada and Australia, there are laws on the books forbidding public denial of the Holocaust©. Violators can be fined and/or sent to jail. The ONLY historical event protected against criticism or revision by civil laws; denial of the Holocaust is codified in two dozen countries as a felony. Why? Happily, many honorable Jews are against such laws. It all comes down to a matter of perception and proportion. The perception of Jews in media and politics, law and medicine, academia and finance; the proportion of Jews found in all these visible occupations in any society, far in excess of their total population. In late 19th and early 20th Century Europe, the proportions of Jews in media and finance were especially excessive. The perception of unwarranted and unwanted control worked against them. In contemporary assessments, not much has changed. Donald Trump and his greasy capon of a collaborator Roger Stone both exalt Roy Cohn as their personal mentor and source of inspiration! Roy Cohn, the sleaziest, most perverted rat in the history of American politics and law.

In that vein, Mark Oppenheimer wrote in the Jewish Tablet magazine about “The Specifically Jewish Perviness of Harvey Weinstein.” And the subtitle: “The disgraced film producer is a character straight out of Philip Roth, playing out his revenge fantasies on the Goyim.” (Oct. 9, 2017, and next day he had to apologize for writing it!) Philip Roth, whose masturbation fantasies did for novels what Woody Allen’s shiksa obsessed penis envy movies did for cinema. More perception: There is that fulsomely smug Steven Wynn/Weinberg, bovine Elliott Broidy, media moguls such as Trump’s National Enquirer buddy killing scandalous stories for the President, the improbably named David Pecker; Leslie Moonves/Munweis of CBS, a great-nephew of Paula Munweis, the wife of Israeli hero David Ben-Gurion. Must I also list the names the Wall Street bastards in the White House, advisers to President Trump? And who the hell is Jared Kushner? What gives him the right to access high level, secret national security information? What talent does he possess to single-handedly negotiate a Mideast peace plan? He gives hugs and kisses, literally, to royal Saudi murderers while pimping for Israel and the money interests of the Trump Organization and the Kushner Companies. He makes strange bedfellows of that bloody Muhammed bin Salman and the now indicted fraudster Bibi Netanyahu. Trump, who stakes his money on large real estate deals requiring tons of borrowed cash and sheaves of promissory notes, gets all that financing from....guess who. He is owned by Israel, and, not so amazingly, the Saudi royal family. Like I said, strange bedfellows.

Joel Stein, in his notorious 2008 article for the Los Angeles Times (Who Runs Hollywood? C'mon! Dec. 19, 2008) exults in the fact of Jewish control in Hollywood and across all mass media. Perception, proportion.

How can anyone stand to even look at that pig-faced, overbearing Oracle of the Jewish billionaire’s club, Larry Ellison, or baby-face Mark Zuckerberg, a man whose noble efforts have been so beneficial to humankind. In this cybernerd arena there are also the bizarre murderer Hans Reiser (NOT a German despite the name) and his nauseating hermaphrodite companion Sean Sturgeon; the utterly creepy Marty Frankel, Wall Street cyber crook with a harem of bought-and-paid-for shiksas; 25-year-old blogger Jacob Wohl, who boasts of the superiority of Jewish minds and whose inept conspiracy plots in cahoots with Jack Burkman (a fake sex scandal directed against Robert Mueller), were so bungling the boys had to hire a whacko Jew lawyer, who else but Larry Klayman (of Judicial Watch), to help them avoid jail time. Klayman also represents that foolish conspiracy tinfoil hat Jerome Corsi.

Cherry picking Jewish names? Just anecdotal mentions that avoid the goy versions of these unsavory people? Okay...CNBC features a lineup of fraudsters on its program American Greed. In over 150 episodes, more than one third of the criminals are Jewish. Such as the unctuous Mouli Cohen who got 22 years prison for wire fraud, money laundering, tax evasion, and whose shiksa wife wrote the fabulous and informative book, The Kosher Billionaire’s Secret Recipe. Amusing, isn’t it. How about Shalom Weiss, a yarmulke bedecked Hassidic Jew, pursued by the FBI for massive insurance fraud, fled to Austria where he demanded asylum because he was a Jew, and the land of Hitler’s birth owed it to him. Extradited nevertheless, he was sentenced to the longest prison term ever handed down to a white-collar criminal, 845 years. Such was the extent of his crimes against innocent policy holders. There's more, not anecdotal but typical:

-Jordan Belfort, market manipulation, boiler room penny stocks fraud, his infamous memoir is The Wolf of Wall Street.

-Barry Minkow, who started scams when he was a teenager, famous as the Carpet Cleaner con artist.

-Lou Pearlman, perverted piggish pop music promoter, the creature behind (pun intended) the boy bands NSync and Backstreet Boys (the boys hated him and were disgusted by his sexual advances). He robbed the bands of millions. Pearlman is a cousin of Art Garfunkel no less.

-David Kaup, Panamanian half-breed Jew securities scammer, on the lam until the FBI caught up with him.

-Ed Okun, a Florida Jew who resembles nothing if not an oiled, gelded warthog, sentenced to 100 years for financial crimes committed via his 1031 Tax Group LLC. He was convicted of mail and wire fraud, money laundering, bulk cash smuggling and perjury.

-Ross Mandell, securities fraud, a Jew so narcissistic he tried to sell a reality TV show based on his Sky Capital brokerage fraud!

-Scott Rothstein, who funded his philanthropy, political contributions, law firm salaries, and an extravagant lifestyle with a $1.2 billion Ponzi scheme, among the largest such frauds in history.

The list of Jews who defrauded other Jews (e.g. Madoff) is just as bad.

I repeat: it is a matter not only of perception in these cases, but proportion. The total Jewish population in the USA as of 2020, religious and secular Jews, is 2.4%. In that American Greed survey of financial criminals, 36% are Jewish. The US Congress consists of 535 members of which 34 are Jewish, 6%.

There is no official census of just how many Jewish lawyers operate in America. That might agitate some people, I suppose. Francis Merton of The Federalist Society estimates 25%, Shlomo Goldstein of NY says 50%. In Germany in the early 1930s, though Jews were 0.7 percent of the population, they represented 16.6 percent of lawyers and judges. Jonathan Sacks explains for The Times of Israel, July 23, 2015:

Why [so many Jewish lawyers]? Because Judaism is not just about spirituality. It is not simply a code for the salvation of the soul. It is a set of instructions for the creation of what the late Rabbi Aharon Lichtenstein called "societal beatitude." It is about bringing God into the shared spaces of our collective life. That needs law: law that represents justice, honoring all humans alike regardless of colour or class, that judges impartially between rich and poor, powerful and powerless, even in extremis between humanity and God, the law that links God, its Giver, to us, its interpreters, the law that alone allows freedom to coexist with order, so that my freedom is not bought at the cost of yours. Small wonder, then, that there are so many Jewish lawyers.

This notion of Jews as the world's legal advocates seeking "societal beatitude" (Tikkun olam) leads directly into the modern calamity of mass migration and the diversity, tolerance and multiculturalism memes. It is not just that current bête noire of the extreme right, George Soros and his Open Society Foundations, at the center of the forced immigration policy in White nations, but also an assemblage of rabbis and Jewish NGOs who will openly admit to this role of Jews as intentionally corrosive elements in White societies seeking to dissolve White culture. Among the leaders is the in-your-face dominatrix of Jewish superiority, Barbara Lerner Spectre (where do they get these names?). Originally from Madison, Wisconsin, she is now married to a Stockholm rabbi and director of Paideia, the European Institute for Jewish Studies in Sweden. See what she has to say about Jews and their role in forced immigration policies for Europe. You Tube: <https://youtu.be/G45WthPTo24?si=0c3j0HtOL2dZbtYp>

In a review of the pro-Jewish, Communist apologia entitled Revolutionary Yiddishland: A History of Jewish Radicalism by Alain Brossat and Sylvie Klingberg, reviewer Brenton Sanderson makes clear that maintaining the Holocaust© narrative “is supremely important for the legions of Jewish ‘diversity’ activists and propagandists throughout the West, given the status of ‘the Holocaust’ as the moral and rhetorical foundation of today’s White displacement agenda. Invocation of this narrative is reflexively used to stifle opposition to the Jewish diaspora strategies of mass non-White immigration and multiculturalism. By contrast, free discussion of the Jewish role in communist crimes undermines Jewish pretensions to moral authority grounded in their self-designated status as history’s preeminent victims.” (Occidental Observer, January 27, 2018)

Oddly enough, a recent poll in Israel records that “Most Israelis Don’t Want Non-Jewish Migrants, Even If They Are Highly Skilled.” <https://www.timesofisrael.com/most-israelis-dont-want-non-jewish-migrants-even-if-they-are-highly-skilled/>

Whether or not all this Jewish visibility is due to a personality quirk or the simple fact that Jews are indeed more intelligent, the perception and proportion factors occupying the judgments of other races always weigh against the Jewish presence. In the 20th Century, the Jewish people gave us Gershom and Gershon:

Gershom Sholem attempted to unscramble the serpentine tangle of Jewish mysticism through an updated, more logical historiography of what was known among 19th Century Jews in Germany as Wissenschaft des Judentums, “Science of Judaism,” whereby a new kabbalah of Israel and the superiority of Jewish intellect would alone enable the world to understand God...as Jewish.

Gershon Legman introduced the study of pornography and profane language as an academic discipline, arguing that the Jew, as history’s eternal outlier, had a unique perspective on human foibles, and thus the foul-mouthed, outrageously Jewish comedians from Lenny Bruce to the recently resurrected Andrew Dice Clay are conduits to the secrets that make us sick. Without Jewish exploration of the human dark side, i.e. discredited Freudian psychiatry, pornography, erotic novels, we would all still be confused by our subliminal obsessions with sex and violence, fluidity of sexuality, mental confusions deriving from our infantile fascination with the anus, or suppressed desires to copulate with the parent of the opposite sex.

In their day, entertainers such as Jack Benny, Milton Berle, Sid Caesar didn’t need to constantly Yiddish it up, or continuously assault their audiences with four letter words. And that really summarizes the problem. Ordinary Jews must suffer and endure the often purposely obnoxious behavior of prominent Jews in all their usual habitats, from the law to medicine, show business to social activism, politics to academia. They are a curse for the ordinary, middle-class Jews struggling to make a living like the rest of us, and a detriment to the course of Western civilization due to their self-anointed roles as the world's adjudicators.